

We welcome Mwat Dominic D. Asedeh to the pulpit this morning. He is a missionary from Nigeria serving with the Evangelical Missionary Society of ECWA (Evangelical Church Winning All) He has also been a missionary in The Gambia. He is married to Achsah and has a beautiful 6 month old daughter, Dariah.

Mwat is doing year two of the Master of Divinity course at the Lancaster Theological Seminary. It is his first time in the US and July 29 marked his one year anniversary. He lives in Lancaster, enjoys watching documentaries loves to travel, see new places and try new things.