Today's opening hymn "This Is My Father's World" was written by Maltbie D. Babcock, born 1858 in Syracuse, New York. Following graduation from Auburn Theological Seminary, he became a Presbyterian minister and served the Brown Memorial Presbyterian Church in Baltimore, Maryland, later serving a congregation in New York City. While in Baltimore he was especially popular with students from Johns Hopkins University, but he ministered to people from all walks of life. In addition to hymn texts and devotionals, he wrote poetry along with published sermons. The familiar tune is an adapted English Folk melody.

Our Community Meal this month will take place on Thursday, June 27th from 5:30-6:30 in the Smith Fellowship Hall. The menu will be Hot Dogs and Hamburgers, Potato Salad, Macaroni Salad, Baked Beans, Pickles, Fruit Cup, and Desserts from Weis Markets. The sign-up sheets for cooking, serving, and cleaning up as well as food donations are in the narthex. This meal is open to anyone in the community who needs a meal for any reason. So feel free to give us a try!
